Meet Jerami

He can’t thank YOU enough!

Because of you, Jerami’s heart is filled with new hope this Easter.
Jerami was proud of being clean and sober for nearly 20 years. He had a good job and lived with several roommates. But then he was let go and he lost his place to live, leaving him adrift.

“I was without a job or a house, working temporary jobs. My faith got weak, and I just couldn’t make the smart decision not to relapse. I went backwards,” he says.

Jerami had been to Tri-City Union Gospel Mission before, and knew he was powerless to break his addiction without help. So he humbled himself and asked to come back to the program.

“The Mission had given me everything I needed to succeed, and I was the one that messed up. My desires were taking over my thinking.”

The day he walked back into Tri-City Union Gospel Mission, Jerami was ready to change for good this time.

“They gave me the tools to overcome my current struggles,” he says, smiling. “To read the Word of God again, to meditate on it and repeat scriptures.”

“I’m a lot more focused on God... what He wants me to do and His plan for my future.”

Through our New Life Program of daily classes and counseling, Jerami is coming to terms with the root of his addiction. “We’re getting to the bottom of my issues and why I’m here, and how to not come back here,” he says.

He volunteers on our grocery rescue crew, going to local stores to pick up unused food and bring it back to use in our kitchen to cook meals.

He is also working to reconcile with loved ones. “Because of my past drug use, my children rarely talk to me. But those relationships are starting to mend.”

You may never meet Jerami, but he’s eternally grateful to YOU for your support – today, his heart is filled with new hope for the future. “The Mission is preparing me for life. I have a lot of hope looking back at me.”

Your gifts are transforming lives this Easter season!

My friends, Easter will be here soon – and with it, the joy of being able to celebrate and shout, “He is risen indeed!”

I can’t think of a truth that’s more important to those staying at the Mission right now... men and women who are facing devastating struggles with homelessness, poverty and addiction.

That Jesus overcame death and rose again to offer hope to a hurting world resonates with our guests. In Jesus, they see that they too can overcome!

As they begin to trust Him, their past guilt and shame transforms into hope for a brighter future. They walk in freedom, knowing that they’re forgiven.

Forgiveness is a doorway to new life. It opens up our guests to accepting love – not just God’s, but love from our staff, their families and even themselves. From there, they blossom into the people they were always meant to be.

This Easter, I pray you’ll experience the glorious hope of the cross in your life... and remember that YOU are making it possible for hurting people to find forgiveness and freedom through the cross too.

I’m so grateful that each time you reach out to help, more hearts are touched by the love of a risen Savior.
